Dec 11, 2018 | 0 comments

The Four Seasons Residence Club Scottsdale at Troon North is a stunning vacation ownership property that captures the enchantment of Arizona's famous Sonoran desert. Owners experience the majesty of the high-desert, rolling hills, rugged mountain peaks, and saguaro cacti in a luxurious and relaxed setting. This Interval International Elite Resort features adobe-style architecture, lush landscaping, and the ultimate in vacation luxury.

Sophisticated two-bedroom, 2 ½ deluxe bath villas sleep 6 guests very comfortably and a Southwest-inspired décor with soft tones reflecting the beauty of the Arizona desert. There are just 45 private villas in this Residence Club with stunning views of enchanted mountains and desert sunsets. Luxuriously appointed vacation homes feature spacious living and dining areas, full gourmet kitchens, gas fireplaces, two private terraces, deluxe bedding and more than enough room for family and friends to relax in comfort.

Residence Club owners enjoy a dedicated clubhouse, state-of-the-art fitness center, private swimming pools, and a children's pool. Owners also have access to their own on-site Ocotillo Grill restaurant.

The Four Seasons Residence Club Scottsdale at Troon North owners are entitled to enjoy the many pleasures of the Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale, which includes more recreational and dining opportunities. Saguaro Blossom is the poolside restaurant featuring plenty of shaded tables offering fresh kale salads, juicy burgers, and sweet desserts. The Onyx Bar & Lounge is the spot to grab a cocktail and watch the sunset. Onyx's full menu offers light appetizers to full steak and seafood dinners to satisfy everyone's tastes. Talavera, a Spanish inspired steakhouse, provides luxury flavors with indoor outdoor seating offering stunning desert views to romance the evenings away.

While at the Four Seasons Residence Club Scottsdale, you can play tennis, relax with a massage at the Spa or go for a nature walk. Take advantage of priority tee times at the acclaimed Pinnacle and Monument courses at Troon North Golf Club. For additional fun, attend a cocktail-making class or join for the exclusive "Sip, Cycle and Soar" experience offering an awesome aerial tour of the desert, including a bike tour, wine tastings, and incredible gourmet cuisine.
